MINISTRY OF LAW
(Legislative Department)

New Delhi, the 24th December, 1970/Pausa 3, 1892 (Saka)

The following Acts of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 24th December, 1970, and are hereby published for general information:—

THE TEA DISTRICTS EMIGRANT LABOUR
(REPEAL) ACT 1971
No. 50 OF 1970

[24th December, 1970]

An Act to provide for the repeal of the Tea Districts Emigrant Labour Act, 1932, and for matters connected therewith.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-first Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Tea Districts Emigrant Labour (Repeal) Act, 1970.

Short title.

2. The Tea Districts Emigrant Labour Act, 1932, is hereby repealed.

Repeal of Act 22 of 1932.
Savings.

3. Notwithstanding the repeal of the Tea Districts Emigrant Labour Act, 1932, by section 2, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the said Act,—

(a) every emigrant labourer in whose case, on the 3rd day of August, 1960, a period of three years from the date of his entry into Assam had not expired,

(b) every emigrant labourer entering Assam on or after the 3rd day of August, 1960, being the date of the Agreement arrived at at the Ninth Session of the Industrial Committee on Plantations, and before the commencement of this Act, and

(c) every emigrant labourer who is in Assam immediately before the commencement of this Act and whose right of repatriation has not been waived or forfeited by agreement or otherwise under any provisions of the said Act, shall, as from the date of expiry of a period of three years from the date of his entry into Assam, whether such expiry occurs before or after the commencement of this Act, have the right to be repatriated, and may be repatriated, under the said Act, as if it had not been repealed and the provisions of the said Act in so far as they relate to the enforcement of the right of repatriation of emigrant labourers shall continue to apply as if for the references therein to the Controller, references to the State Government of Assam or an officer authorised by that Government in this behalf had been substituted:

Provided that no such emigrant labourer shall have the right to be so repatriated unless he makes an application in this behalf—

(a) within a period of six months from the commencement of this Act, where the aforesaid period of three years has expired before such commencement, or

(b) within a period of six months from the date of expiry of the aforesaid period of three years, where the latter period expires after such commencement.

THE CENTRAL LABOUR LAWS (EXTENSION TO JAMMU AND KASHMIR) ACT, 1970

[24th December, 1970]

No. 51 OF 1970

An Act to provide for the extension of certain Central labour laws to the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-first Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Central Labour Laws (Extension to Jammu and Kashmir) Act, 1970.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. (1) The Acts mentioned in the Schedule and all rules, orders, regulations and schemes made thereunder by the Central Government are hereby extended to, and shall be in force in, the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

(2) With effect from the commencement of this Act, the Acts mentioned in the Schedule shall be amended as specified therein.

Extension and amendment of certain labour laws.

3. Any reference in any Act mentioned in the Schedule to a law which is not in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir shall, in relation to that State, be construed as a reference to the corresponding law, if any, in force in that State.

Construction of references to laws not in force in Jammu and Kashmir. Construction of references to authorities where new authorities have been constituted. Repeals and savings.

4. Any reference by whatever form of words in any law for the time being in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir to any authority competent at the date of the passing of that law to exercise any powers or discharge any functions in that State shall, where a corresponding new authority has been constituted by or under any law now extended to that State, have effect as if it were a reference to the new authority.

5. If immediately before the commencement of this Act there is in force in the State of Jammu and Kashmir any law corresponding to any Act now extended to that State, that law shall, save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, stand repealed on such commencement:

Provided that the repeal shall not affect—

- (a) the previous operation of any law so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder,
- (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any law so repealed,
- (c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any law so repealed, or
- (d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed, as if this Act had not been passed:

Provided further that, subject to the preceding proviso, anything done or any action taken (including any appointment or delegation made, notification, instruction or direction issued, form, bye-law or scheme framed, certificate obtained, permit or licence granted or registration effected) under any such law shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of the Act now extended to that State, and shall continue to be in force accordingly unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under the said Act.

6. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of any Act now extended to the State of Jammu and Kashmir, the Central Government may, as occasion may require, by order notified in the Official Gazette, make such provisions or give such directions, not inconsistent with the provisions of such Act, as appear to it necessary for the removal of the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made under this section after the expiration of two years from the date on which this Act comes into force

Power to remove difficulties.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, any such notified order may—

(a) specify the corresponding authorities within the meaning of section 4;

(b) provide for the transfer of any matter pending immediately before the commencement of this Act before any court, tribunal or other authority, to any corresponding court, tribunal or other authority for disposal;

(c) specify the areas or circumstances in which, or the extent to which, or the conditions subject to which, anything done or any action taken (including any of the matters specified in the second proviso to section 5) under any law repealed by that section shall be recognised or given effect to under the corresponding provision of the Act now extended.
